NYSCATE
Innovate. Educate.

JANE JAMISON FIRST-TIME ATTENDEE SCHOLARSHIP

For Teachers & Pre-Service Teachers

Opening the door for a new generation of educators to learn, connect, and lead.

NYSCATE 2026 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Jane Jamison
Founder of NYSCATE

HONORING A FIERCE SPIRIT AND A LIFELONG EDUCATOR

Jane Jamison was a visionary educator, NYSCATE's founder, and the organization's only Lifetime Achievement Award recipient. For 31 years, she taught mathematics and computer courses at Hornell High School. Her passion for technology, mentorship, and community service continues through this scholarship — helping an educator attend NYSCATE for the very first time.

"Teaching is the one profession that creates all other professions."

THE SCHOLARSHIP INCLUDES:

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION + HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS + TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT

WHO SHOULD APPLY

- First-time NYSCATE Annual Conference attendees
- Educators employed by or directly supporting a New York State educational organization (including K–12 classroom teachers, library media specialists, instructional technology specialists, or coaches)
- Pre-Service Teachers attending a Teaching College
- Applicants able to attend the full conference and secure supervisor approval, if needed

RECIPIENT COMMITMENTS TO

- Attend the full Annual Conference (Nov. 22-24, 2026), including the Grants & Awards Reception
- Participate in sessions, activities, and networking opportunities
- Share a brief reflection and permit promotional recognition (accommodations available upon request)
- Submit post-attendance receipts for eligible travel and other expenses - reimbursable up to $500.

BE AMONG THE FIRST TO CARRY JANE'S LEGACY FORWARD

APPLY / LEARN MORE: bit.ly/JaneJamison

Not eligible: NYSCATE board members, scholarship reviewers, vendors, exhibitors, or previous Annual Conference attendees. Reimbursement requires receipts and verified attendance. Unused nonrefundable expenses may be subject to repayment.